

Music Scholarship

Sutton Park School is proud to announce a number of music scholarships will be available through the Young Musician Competition. The school wants to build on its excellent achievements in music performance and this is an opportunity for musicians interested in combining intensive opportunities to practice with mainstream schooling. Applicants who have performed at the Prize Winner's Concert can apply for entry to the school through the normal admissions procedures.

Professor Gerard Gillen

The adjudicator for this year's competition will be internationally recognised educationalist, world class organist and musician, Professor Gerard Gillen. Professor Gillen has given recitals in prestigious international venues such as the Royal Festival Hall, Mc Ewan Hall, Edinburgh and in cathedrals including Pittsburg, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Canterbury, Notre Dame, Paris, Vienna, Salzburg, Regensburg, Freiburg, Hamburg, Haarlem, Brussels Antwerp, Bruges, Copenhagen, Madrid and Tallinn.
